

The coat of arms of Mazamitla is a white line-art emblem on a grey background. It features a central shield with a deer standing on a tree trunk, flanked by pine trees and a still life with a bottle and jars. Above the shield is a crest with a bird and a shield. The shield is surrounded by decorative flourishes.

The image shows a close-up, low-angle view of a modern building's exterior. The facade is composed of light-colored, rectangular panels arranged in a grid. Several windows are visible, some with white frames and others with dark frames. The lighting is bright, creating a clean and architectural aesthetic. A black rectangular box is superimposed over the center of the image, containing the text 'Clasificacion del Gasto' in a bold, black, serif font.
